Preliminary Note: This office action is made non-final.

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is non-statutory.

Claims 1, 4, 5 and 6: Each of these claims are addressed to a "system" which is not a physical system but an arrangement of software instructions. An arrangement of software instructions amounts to nothing more than an arrangement of text, and thus is not considered to fall within one of the four statutory categories of invention. Accordingly, the claimed invention is non-statutory.

Claims 2-3 and 7-9: Depend on claims 1, 4, 5 and 6 respectively.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 20-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Buteau (U.S. Patent 6,442,557).

The reasons for this rejection were set forth in the office action of March 10, 2006 and are hereby incorporated by reference.

Art Unit: 2164

Claims 1-9 would be allowed if written to overcome the rejections under 35 USC 101.

Claims 10-19 are allowed. Claims 20-24 remain rejected on prior art.

This office action is made non-final.
